

Don't miss GET A GROUP SUNDAY!

“GET A GROUP SUNDAY”

Many of you were a part of a “Live Like You Were Dying” small group that met in September and October and you got to see what the small group experience was like. Of the seven or so groups that began there are three of the groups that are planning to continue and there one host family who will continue if people are interested in meeting at their time and place. Sunday January 24th is your chance to get a group. You can either join one that is already started or you can be a part of forming a brand new group. The following are the times and places of the groups that are already established:

- Jim and Amy Calhoun – Monday evenings from 6:00 to 8:00 studying Disciple Bible Study an in depth study of the Old Testament. (13 weeks) starts February 15th
- Luke and Angie Wescott – Tuesday evenings at 6:30 PM studying Discerning the Voice of God by Priscilla Shirer. Starts February 28th
- Jan Bodholdt – Tuesdays at 10:00 AM at the church studying a book about The Missing Books of the Bible. Currently ongoing.
- The family who said they will host a group if other people are interested is the Sirota Family. They would meet Tuesday evenings at 6:00PM.
- We also can start a web bog Bible study discussion group.

For more information about an existing group or to volunteer to host another group you may call the church office at 382-5113 or Pastor Steve at 761-0391.
